

Brother Giles Turbee, O.S.F.

and Brother Urban Gounnoud O.S.F. on the advent of their silver jubilee in the life and the way of St. Francis.

Twenty-five years is a long time, yet it seems all too short in a life both productive and happy. Within this time span, Brothers Urban and Giles have dedicated their lives to the education of youth and their preparation for entrance into society.

Such loyalty and devotion has been instrumental in spawning a newer and better St. Francis—one they personally helped to build by bridging the age old traditions of Franciscanism to that of the modern world and its educational dynamism. In keeping with these ideals of Franciscanism, Brothers Urban and Giles have advanced the march of learning—the giving of knowledge to all.
