THE VOICE

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

February 21, 1951

Volume XXXV, No. 7

JOHN P. CURRAN
Editor

THE VOICE is the official newspaper of St. Francis College and has been published regularly since October, 1936. However, the origin of The Voice goes back to the year 1885 when a paper called "The Spectator" was written and published by members of the student body.

It has been the aim of the student newspaper to present straight news and sport stories with accuracy, feature writings with interest and vigor, and to balance humorous articles with more scholarly work in a way that will be both pleasing and tasteful.

The chief aim of The Voice, however, is to satisfy every student. In order to satisfy the student, The Voice has often taken up his particular quarrel in an effort to bring about desired changes.

In the month of April the editor of The Voice is elected by the student body of St. Francis. Other staff positions are filled by appointment. Every member of the student body may serve on the paper in some capacity provided he possesses the ability to work.
