If you think that's funny I've got a million of them.

In the fall of 1968 the Troupers under the direction of Mr. John Clifford presented the comedy, "Never Too Late." The play was an artistic as well as a financial success. The Troupers are dedicated to furthering an appreciation of the aesthetic as evidenced by the high level of performance strived for and excellently attained by the Troupers.

Dear* please get the tank.

Take it from a man with experience.

You finally made it!

Anybody got a can of Noxema?

Brochu at his best.
