

Work and Play with Business Club

DR. CHARLES SAVAGE, BROTHER LEON, Moderators, at Business Club Social.

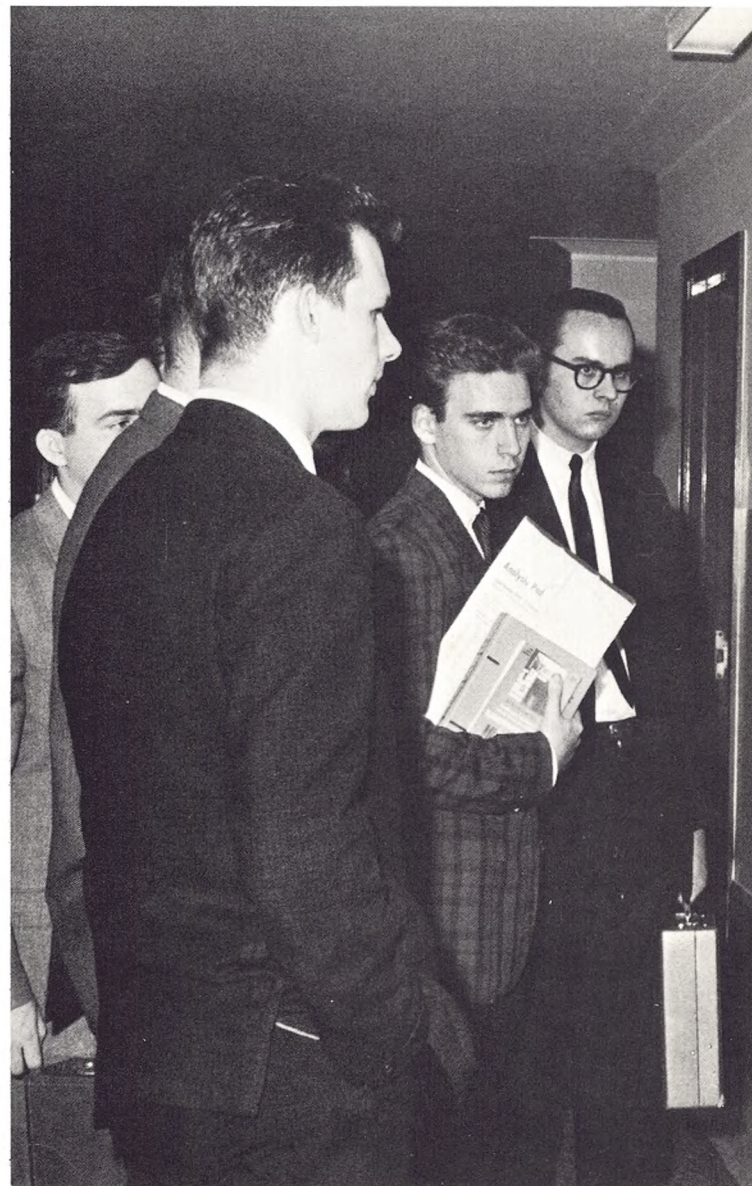

THE Business Club and Alpha Kappa Psi Chapter interlaced their weekly meetings with a number of socials this year. This combination of Business concepts and swizzle sticks proved a successful formula.

The Chapter sponsored several luncheons at The Hamilton, The Bossert Hotel, and Foffe's Restaurant. At the largest of these, held at the Bossert, George Humn, Head of the Brooklyn branch of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, spoke about the operations of the Stock Exchange. During the Christmas recess the chapter held a formal Christmas party. A similar function was held on May 9th.

Alpha Kappa Psi is a prominent National Business Fraternity with over 30,000 members. The St. Francis Chapter was begun this year with 44 members and 10 pledges. The Chapter successfully petitioned the Joseph Lategano, class of '56, Loan Officer of the Chemical Bank, Court Street Office, spoke at the Alpha Kappa Psi Luncheon.

Bill Donahue, Bill Kenna, Pete Fullam and IBM Group Manager. Scene was tour of New York Stock Exchange.

and Alpha Kappa

National Organization for recognition and the installation was held on May 1st at the Manger Vanderbilt Hotel.

During the year, the chapter ran a phon-a-thon for the alumni association, realizing a sum of $3,500. They were also instrumental in the success of the Alumni Association Dinner which was held at The Top of the Fair.

The Business Club had a number of guest speakers at their weekly meetings, including Mr. Steve McCarthy, St. Francis Alumnus and presently Sales Manager for Nudex Products. He spoke on careers in sales. The Club also sponsored a trip to the New York Stock Exchange. The major social event of the year was a dance held on May 1st.

Alpha Kappa Psi officers: Ronald Senese, President; Joseph Tennant, Treasurer; Richard Silverman, Vice President; Joseph Forlenza, Master of Rituals; Philip Mercorella, Secretary.

Stephen McCarthy, guest speaker for the Business Club. Mr. McCarthy, an alumnus, is sales manager of Nudex Products.

