Troupers Thwarted

Stalwart performer over the seasons, Denis Calandra emoting here as Nicholas in The Unheroic, graduates this year.

THE Troupers began the school year with plans for both Fall and Spring presentations. Their ambitions, however, were only half fulfilled. The spring presentation of The Curious Savage had to be canceled due to the illnesses of the Director and the Moderator, Brother Anthelm. This production has been rescheduled for next semester.

The Fall production also had a setback. The dual presentation of A Fourth for Bridge and Parade at Devil's Bridge opened on the eve of the assassination of President Kennedy and as a result had sparse attendance. Approximately, sixty persons attended on the first night while there were about a hundred on the second. This production was staged in conjunction with Packer Institute for Girls.

Brother Anthelm announced that the Troupers are now members of Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Fraternity for Dramatics.
