

The Cord

An old edition gives James O'Neill and Robert Nolan ideas for improving this year's issue.

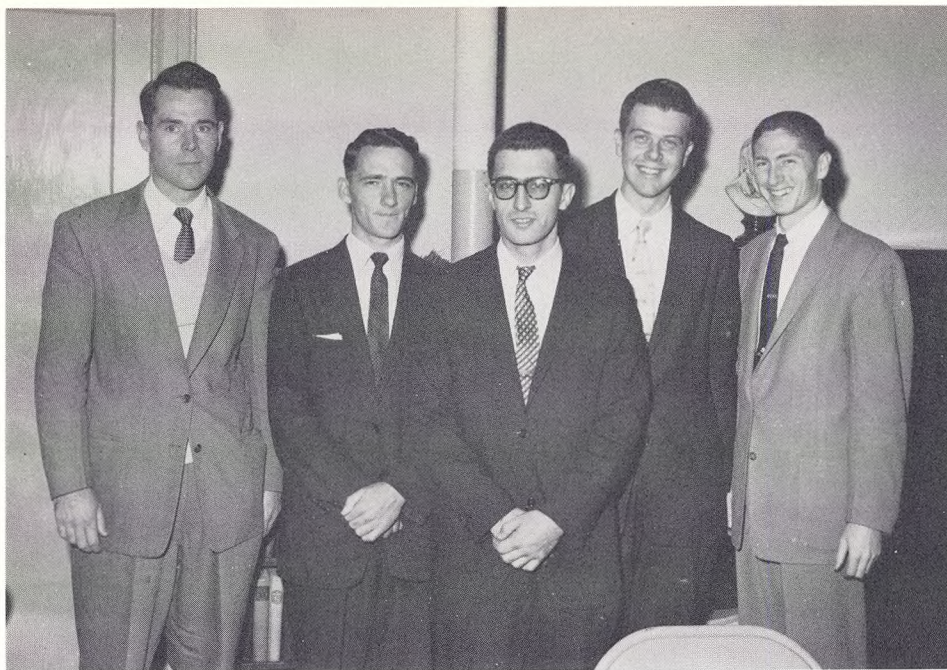

Anthony Pisano discusses the book's layout with Carl Sardegna.

AT THE REQUEST of Brother Jerome in 1939, the first issue of THE CORD was published to familiarize incoming freshmen with the ways and traditions of Saint Francis College. Through the years its purpose has remained the same: to give in compact form the necessary information concerning activities at the College, administration rules and regulations, and other pertinent facts of school life. THE CORD is published every year; its editor and staff are elected by the Sophomore Class.

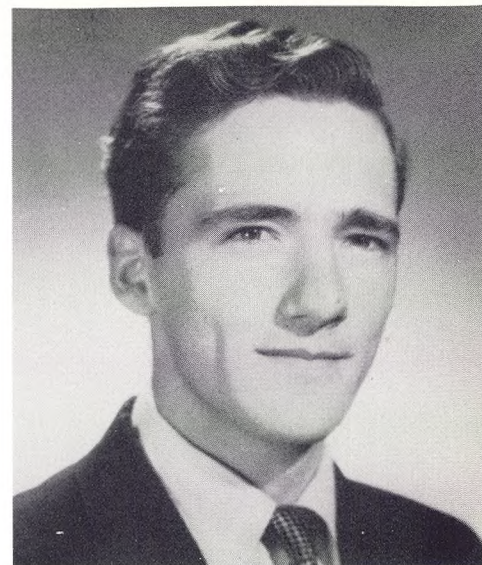

Smiles reflect satisfaction in the work thus far accomplished by the staff.
