SCHOLASTIC excellence and extraordinary contributions to the extracurricular activities of the College are the qualifications for entrance to this honor group. This year's selection committee, composed of previously elected members and a board of Administrators, elected sixteen new men pictured here. For their service to the school their names will join those past honored by way of permanent inscription on the Duns Scotus plaque located in the lobby of the main building.

Honor Society

In this thirtieth year of its founding, Brother Leo has set some kind of moderator's record by being mentor of the group for the entire span of its existence. Brother summed up the purpose of the Society as that of encouraging the development of well rounded individuals with praiseworthy ideals which might be followed throughout their lives.
