The "Smiling" Irishman of St. Francis. Ed is a cheery fellow. His Irish wit and native intelligence have always managed to pull his classmates together. Ed is never caught short for an answer either in or out of the classroom. Where others delve into Philosophy as a source of solace, a few of Ed's quips serve the purpose just as adequately. A combination of athletic and intellectual ability, Ed is hard to surpass.

Mendel Club; Indicator Club; Grand Archon Pi Alpha; Who's Who; Senior Activities Committee.

That well-dressed, smiling gentleman is none other than Joe. His influence, activities, and manners extend beyond the limits of the Bio Lab as all who know him can attest. Joe likes to play hockey and football around his Bay Ridge residence. A major in Biology. Joe's desire upon graduation is to enter medical school. His friendliness will carry him far in his endeavors. We salute Joe, a true Franciscan.

PETER WILLIAM BARRECCHIA

Pi Alpha

Known around St. Francis as "Pete", he hails from the wilds of Corona. His sojourn at St. Francis had its inception back in 1943.

"English Major."

However, Pete's thirst for education prevailed and the year 1946 witnessed the return of this young journalistic aspirant, who wasted no time in supplementing his journalistic desires with a sound Wherever your travels may take you, Pete, we are certain that whatever flows from your pen will be representative of that pleasing personality which has now concluded one stage of education at our favorite college.
