

THOMAS J. O'BRIEN

Bachelor of Arts

St. Francis Preparatory

Only his name saved him from the Carbonari . . . a summer life guard who likes to dig clams . . . deserted the history ranks —“Who’s sorry now?” . . . “I can’t wait to get to my English class” . . . eh! eh! . . . never quite arrived at a St. Francis dance . . . “I met your friend Charlie Swinburn” . . . to the Halls of Montezuma.

Class Treasurer 1, 2; Class Vice-President 3; Frosh Cross Country; Frosh Track Team; Varsity Track 2, 3, 4; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Arts Club 1, 2, 3, 4; History Club 2, 3, 4; Religion Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Soph-Frosh Dance Committee; Ring Committee 4.

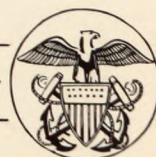

FELIX D. PAOLUCCI

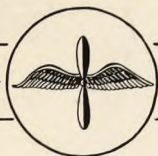

Bachelor of Science

Abraham Lincoln High School

The only half Irish member of the “Carbonari” . . . “La Boheme is the most understandable of all operas” . . . “che gelida manina” . . . a left handed guitar strummer . . . the shortage of Bingos sent him to St. Athanasius dances . . . “Come on gang, Double F, and make it loud” . . . enjoys having a good time . . . a future Dr. Kildare.

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Mendel Club 2, 3, 4; Indicator Club 2, 3; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; College Swing Trio; Cheerleader 1, 2, 3, Captain 4; Phi Ro Pi; Franciscan, Co-Business Manager.

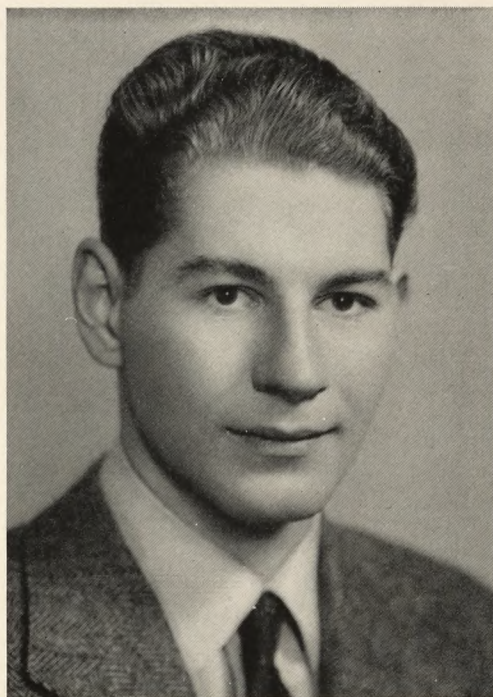

TOWNSEND J. SAUSVILLE

Bachelor of Science

St. Francis Preparatory

Gentleman plus . . . photographer and camera fiend . . . "First you get the Ph" . . . Flatbush socialite of St. Francis . . . "That's the girl I'm going to marry" . . . inseparable from Ed Heffernan till the war came . . . has the makings of a big time newspaper man . . . he'll wear a pair of silver wings.

Student Council 3; Voice 3, Editor 4; French Club 1, 2; T.O.S.F.; Pi Alpha, Treasurer 3; Franciscan 3, Associate Editor 4.

JOHN J. SCANLON

Bachelor of Arts

Chaminade High School

The Lynbrook Lothario . . . tall, dark and silent . . . "Did I meet an interesting personality on the Long Island R.R." . . . a frustrated chemist . . . now trades punches with Prof Schwendeman . . . a flair for poetry during Ethics class . . . "Twenty-four credits, I guess I put one over on the Dean" . . . Understandably proud of his "Petty" drawings and Marine uniform.

Class Vice-President 1; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Arts Club 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 1, 2; Pi Alpha, Secretary 4; Religion Club 1, 2, 3.

