

And The Final Few 1992 Grads

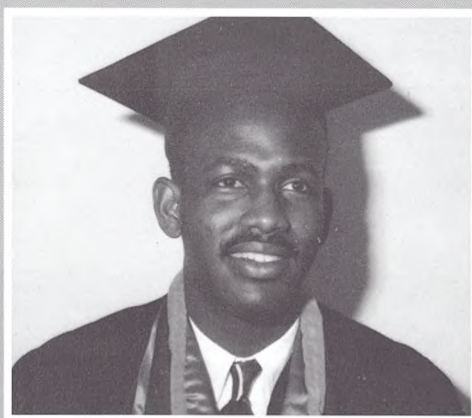

Joanne Vasilion

B.S. Aviation Business Administration

Rose Colon

Wayne Knight

Senior Signals:

You know you are a senior when . . .

- You need money and your parents won't give it to you anymore.
- You don't care what other people think of you.
- All you ever think about is graduation.
- Everybody knows you but you don't know them.
- Your THESIS paper becomes your social activity every weekend.
- You get "spring fever" before Christmas.
- The real world does not seem so far away.
- Days go by like hours used to.
- You actually start worrying about passing tests.
- The juniors start treating you like you have already graduated cause they want to rule the school.
- Your plans for the future expand beyond what's happening next weekend.
- You spend more time on your resume than on partying.
- Paying back your loans has become a reality.
- There is no one left to date at St. Francis.
- People tell you "it was nice knowing you, keep in touch."

Semi-Formal — May 1, 1992

