

The Press Club

Front Row: John Bertone, Jim Brennan, President; Daniel D'Errico, Jim McHugh. Standing: Kevin Mullany, Charlie Kenny, Gil Gingold, Tom Demney, John Lynch, George Bettex, John McGuire.

THE Press Relations department is perhaps the one single force at St. Francis more responsible for making everybody, everywhere "Terrier Conscious". To help the Public Relations Department, Mr. Wielert, its Director founded the Press Club in October of '48.

With its many and varied duties the Press Club has been a beehive of activity. Evolving mainly from the 14th Regiment Armory, these tasks include setting up and selling programs, aiding visiting newsmen, radio and television announcers, and in general, seeing that the needs of all those at the games are satisfied. The Press Club has figured prominently in winning for St. Francis a small but definite place "in the sun".

The Math Club

Front Row: W. Schroeder, J. Moran, J. Balogh, A. Zalud, T. Gallagher, T. McNiff. Second Row: B. Gray, J. Amento, J. Horohoe, G. Curtis, T. Shanahan. Third Row: T. Tuite, D. Martin, F. Borges, T. O'Connor. Back Row: J. Hennessy, J. Rosanio, A. Agoglia, F. Reilly, J. Kennedy, F. Schuhmann, J. McNicholas, J. Quigely, A. Brown, R. Webb.

THE Math Club offers to the student of Euclid, Pythagoras, and others, the chance to view the science of math as it exists outside the classroom and textbook. Continuing business with pleasure, the members of this society postulate the theorem that "a man can enjoy math with a slide rule in one hand and some refreshment in the other, if careful calculation is made on the former, and moderation is used with the latter."