

To C.K.

Good luck in Law School. I'll miss you in school without me. You really mean a lot to me. I love you.

Love,
Salvatore

Dear CK,

I love you but I hate your music, and your sisters (sometimes). You are aces in my book.

Love,
The Ginzo

To the Colgans,

The next time any of you start up with me, in anyway, shape or form, I will throw you off the 1M balcony.

"Love"
Sal

Christine,

You should have a happy and care free life without injuries or anything happening to you. God knows in the last two years, a million things have happened to us.

Love,
Sal

To My Dearest William,

The 4 years of being at SFC will always be cherished because you have made them my happiest. Ever since I have met you, I knew you would be the only one for me. Thank you for always being there and helping with everything.

All my love,
R.M.

To Chris,

Congratulations Buddy!! You made it! In the time we've known each other, you've constantly proven to be a true friend. And although I never show it: I truly value our friendship. Best wishes for a happy future!! I know you'll succeed in whatever you pursue.

Love,
Gail

APD Brothers,

When you stab your friends in the back, why don't you twist the knife faster. The pain then wouldn't be so great.

Your last little sister,
Christine

To my father,

Thanks for being there, I'm glad you're paying for Law School!

Love,
Christine

Laura,

No more cats on the subway, men with long lashes or nurses in your future! Have a great life!

Love,
Christine

Salvatore,

"You're in my heart, you're in my soul, you're in my breath as I grow old, you're my lover, you're my best friend, you're in my soul . . ." Thanks for being there for me. You've filled the void in my life that had been missing since my mom died. I love you.

Love,
Christine

These past years were the best, I'll never forget all the crazy things we did. Keep in touch.

Four years sure flew by fast. I'm going to miss all my friends here at SFC who helped me through the rough spots. To Alpha Eta Rho, and to the Flyers: "Keep Flying High!!" Hey Vicky — I still remember hangin out in kindergarten with you — look at us now! Henry, I'll see you at 35,000 feet — keep in touch. Gina, I'll get you a plane yet. To Linda and Sue: "Nice Bow" — I'll miss both of you! But most of all, to my parents, thanks for standing by me, now on to graduate School.

Dirk

To Mike Mallon,

May you get some sleep after College.

To the Pledges,

Good luck! You'll need it. Good health to all the brothers of Alpha Phi Delta.

Louis Cazzetta

Vicki Cooke,

Besides being a friend, you've been an inspiration. Excell in your endeavors and remember, it isn't luck — you determine your own destiny. See you in Court in '94.

To the rest of the graduates — "more beyond"
To the rest of the students — persevere and some courage.
To the faculty and administration — Keep the torch burning that some feeble student will find the way.

Margaret,
We had fun at parties, ski trips, discos, and Puerto Rico. Laughs, tears, and gossip. College is over! Now what? Oofala! Mustard seed, pastels. Used suntan lotion, summer boots. "It's not the time to discuss this". (Dr./Lawyer) Best of Luck to you.
Friends forever,
Nancy

Mom and Grandma,
Thank you for all your help, love and support, especially for washing the dishes!

Patricia James,
As I reflect to our one year excursion of notes and giggles, I look forward to an everlasting friendship. God's timing is perfect and I thank him for you. Thank you for being you and remember, "This is the time to . . ."
Love,
Ramon Yushimito

Nancy,
How's it going? 4 Years have gone by and not 1 oohfala. One bit of advice — liquor and lomotils don't mix. You lose all control. I saw it happen once. The girls thought she was Jennifer Gray. It was an ugly sight. Remember ". . . Pizza for Easter . . ., where are my cowboy boots? . . . You look like you have a skin disease . . . We need a jacket for privacy . . ."
Good luck, friends forever,
Margaret

Eric,
Good luck to you in your remaining yrs. here. Thanks for being there when I needed someone.
Love,
Margaret

Mary Ellen,
Remember "no more shots of peach snaps, please . . . that memorable car ride home after 1 too many . . . wait, what is that on my window . . . it smells like coconuts to me . . . Quim . . . How's it going . . ." I'm glad we became friends.
Margaret

Mom and Dad,
Thank you for giving me the opportunity of an education and for all the support you have given me. I love you
Margaret Anne
