Baseball

RALPH CLOPPSE

IN OVER a half century of participation here at St. Francis, "the national pastime" has had its ups and downs. It has survived through losing seasons, financial difficulties and two World Wars. Since 1947, however, when baseball returned to the college after a ten year absence, S.F.C. teams have really come into prominence.

RAY McCARTNEY

JOHN ASTARITA

A MEMBER of the Knickerbocker Conference, the Red and Blue has been a constant contender for the league title. Last year, the Terriers had perhaps their finest season, finishing in second place. At the season's end, one of the stars of the team, Danny McCarthy, was signed to a Yankee contract. However, this is all in the past. The Terriers are looking toward the future, and it certainly looks bright.
