

History of the Senior Class

Freshman Floundering

EIGHTY hungry looking Freshmen appear on Butler St. . . . all very timid and cautious . . . Dean Sullivan conducts a first Orientation class . . . text book-three dollars . . . all not so timid and cautious . . . mostly broke . . . Pat Gleason becomes first class president . . . Prof. Harris cracks down with Digest and Critical Method . . . none escape . . . Soph-Frosh hold dance in college palestra . . . Prof. Woods holds chemistry class next morning . . . Woods alone . . . varsity football team is slapped together in mid-season . . . Ed McKaba at half back . . . team drops two games . . . Cordts twins play varsity basketball . . . look alike . . . referees look perplexed . . . spectators look twice . . . Xmas holidays welcomed by all . . . final exams welcomed by none . . . Harris still trying to sell last few copies of Digest . . . Jack Farrell is new class president . . . calls first meeting . . . George Rogers is the only one present . . . class holds Freshman Hop at the Hotel Taft . . . another social "success" . . . the college adopts baseball . . . our team adopts Dodger technique . . . someone invents fundamental exams . . . no one passes . . . every one forgets about them . . . Easter vacation . . . College Minstrel Show is a success . . . eight o'clock classes and late slips start to wear every one down . . . Commencement in the Academy of Music Opera House.

Sophomore Splendor

Football team begins training September third . . . classes resume the twenty fourth . . . new registrar . . . lose opening game to City, 14-0 . . . Prof. Sloane teaches Oral English . . . McKaba and Dunn still warming the bench . . . Education classes four to six as usual . . . Jack Corrigan renders a prize translation in Brother Columba's Horace class . . . Father McKernan teaches Latin and Greek . . . also founds To Kalon K'Agathon classical society . . . French Club holds a play in the palestra . . . seventy three cents (in pennies) picked off the floor . . . Frank Sciacchitano supplies Terrier mascot at football games . . . Brother Jerome becomes instructor in English.

First issue of the VOICE . . . some typographical errors . . . Sophomore Class holds an amateur contest . . . Jim (Major Bowes) Moffatt at the mike . . . Professors Carway, Corlis, and Parsons judge the winners . . . also dodge pine-apples, chairs, bottles, etc. . . . college show, "Good News," for new chapel . . . Jerry Gorman develops two left feet in chorus dance . . . Walter McArdle sings . . . oratorical contest . . . John Schlereth wins . . . Joe Weigandt stars in the show, "The Two Marys" . . . Art symposium by To Kalon with lantern slides . . . everyone slides . . . Dante Sena gives a talk on the opera . . . everyone still slides . . . Lynch elected basketball captain . . . new catalogue appears . . . Pinkerton and Scotland Yard fail to interpret it . . . everyone disregards it . . . commencement at the Academy of Music . . . no air in the bellows of the organ . . . speakers still function . . . Apologetics Medal to Jim Donnelly . . . Ethics Medal to Paul Ciangetti . . . Science Medal to John Walsh . . . English Literature Award to George McFadden . . . faculty restless . . . Father Beck tours Europe, Asia, Africa by auto . . . Father McKernan visits Ireland . . . Professor Harris last seen heading for China.

Junior Jargon

Dr. Critchley comes with Ph.D. from Oxford . . . no topper . . . Dr. Naggi heads history department . . . brandishes a new tooth brush . . . another Oral English teacher without mustache . . . Tom Orr elected class president . . . general assembly with an all professor cast . . . no decision . . . more dramatics . . . Weigandt winds up behind the dramatic eight ball from the fall of Herod . . . Austin Murphy secretary for Intercollegiate Literary Conference . . . McArdle joins Metropolitan Opera Chorus . . . Student Council dance for VOICE benefit . . . no benefit . . . Paul Ciangetti news editor of paper . . . Ned Condron appeals for pennies to aid Spain . . . gets a few . . . Brother Jerome new dean . . . another Oratorical contest . . . Professor Delaney moderator . . . still no mustache . . . Henry Krisch wins . . . Interracial Society . . . "elects" Ed Kane president . . . advocates chocolate milk . . . yearly show again . . . Weigandt plays a phoney Count . . . is counted out . . . Orr new editor of the VOICE . . . he fears for the future . . . then fears for himself . . . John O'Rourke is found wearing Paris Garters . . . Condron becomes Archon of Pi Alpha . . . Moffatt leaves for Ireland.