

used so effectively. Joe played in 15 games, scored 21 points.

Invariably overlooked when praise is forthcoming, but the first one to be singled out when anything goes wrong—is the manager. And so, a belated word of praise to Gerry Brennan, Senior Manager of the Varsity, whose task it was to keep everything running smoothly and everybody happy. A good manager, like a good coach, is essential in any sport and Gerry was a good manager. In fact, he was a very good one, for it was under Gerry that the Terriers broke their Garden jinx.

The third group in the Terriers' new plan of mass substitution was the fastest and shiftiest. . . . Relegated to a third team position at the beginning of the year, Senior Frank Gwiazda refused to be kept down and became the sixth man of the squad when Cooney made single substitutions. Frank saw action in 17 games, starting six of them. The "Song-bird" of the team, he is the fastest man on the squad and used his speed to great ligan; Frank Gwiazda; Middle Row:

Left to Right: Top Row: Bill Barrett; Ed Laurie; Middle Row: Jack McWilliams; Joe Sydlansky; Bottom Row: Artie Lochhead; Manager Gerry Brennan. Left: The Second Team.

Left to Right: Top Row: "Chick" Gal-
Frank Quinn; Bill Graham; Bottom
Row: Benny Benigno; Trainer Frank
Trent. Right: Third Team of Varsity Squad.

advantage on his pet play, a fast break. Frank's last game was the St. John's tussle in which he sank 2 out of 3 foul shots to bring his season total to an even 60 points. . . . Another man who started out with the third team but saw action in 12 games and started in 4, was Bill Graham. An aggressive ball player, Bill's favorite offensive play was to cut in front of the basket and lay the ball up with either hand. Bill boosted his season's total to 41 points by scoring 3 valuable baskets in the St. John's game. . . . The most popular player on the Varsity Squad is Benny Benigno, a Senior, who broke into the regular line-up in the latter part of the season. Fast and shifty, Ben accounted for 40 points in his last year of College competition. His foul shooting average was .714. . . . Frank Quinn is another player who broke into the starting line-up late in the season. Frank saw service in 9 games and scored 20 points. The experience which he gained this year should make Frank a contender for a regular starting position on next year's squad. . . . The most

