NAMED after Blessed Duns Scotus, Franciscan scholar and defender of the Immaculate Conception, the Duns Scotus Honor Society bestows honor and recognition upon those who, by their scholarship and activity in collegiate endeavors, have gained the respect and esteem of the administration, the faculty, and their fellow students.

While membership in this society is the token of praise from the College for a "job well done", each member entails the obligation of maintaining previous standards and the duty of complying to the Franciscan ideals of a Catholic College gentleman.
