St. Francis received visitors from the film community. On September 28, they were here to shoot scenes for a film entitled "A Secret Space." It was the story of a young Jewish boy's conflict with his parents. The film revolved around the boy's struggle to maintain an Orthodox lifestyle in his home. The film was directed by Ms. Roberta Hodes, who together with Rosalyn Regelson wrote the screenplay.

The scenes of a community center were filmed in our gymnasium. The film, which was seen in March on Channel 13, starred Robert Klein, Phyllis Newman, and Virginia Graham. The part of the boy was played by 11 year old Jon Matthews.
