

INDOOR SEASON

After a few weeks of much-needed rest, the team began the hard and grueling training for the indoor season. Practice at Columbia with its cold wind and snow covered track hardened the Terriers for the long season ahead. The 69th, 13th and 14th Regiment Armories were also scenes of frequent practice.

On December 27th, the Junior Metropolitan Championships were held and the Terrier mile relay crashed through to victory. Tom McHugh, Al Farnochi, Joe Anderson and Dick Duer comprised the winning combination. Charley Kenny placed fifth in the three mile run. The Met. A.A.U. games on January 3, 1948 brought a trophy to Archie Attarian for his win in the 1000 yd. run. Tom Heath had the 600 yd. dash in the bag until he went sprawling as a result of a push from behind.

Hank McVeety and Bill Welsh ran in the Two Mile Invitation Run and did surprisingly well. Mac covered the distance in 9:48 and Bill did 10:03.

On January 10 the Terriers braved the "Blizzard of 48" and made a brilliant showing in the first Long Island Chapters of the Knights of Columbus at the 104th Field Artillery, Jamaica Armory. The team arrived from Brooklyn with their heart set on stealing the team trophy and any other medals that might be theirs for the taking. The team from the Police Sports Association, however, was on the job and managed to snatch victory away by a  $\frac{1}{2}$  point.

Tom Heath broke his novicehood with a smashing victory in the 600. In the 1000 yd. race Archie Attarian took a first place medal; Jack Munnelley grabbed a second and George Covek pulled in two places behind him. In the Galligan Memorial Two-Mile Run, Hank McVeety and Bill Welsh took fourth place in their respective sections of the run. The Two Mile Relay placed second behind a strong Pioneer Team, in a thrill packed race. The last race of the evening and the one on which the outcome of the meet depended was the Mile Relay. The Terriers needed a third place to clinch the trophy; however they couldn't make it and finished fourth.

At the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Meet held at 168th Street, New York, the Freshman squad secured second place honors behind a well-balanced Manhattan team. The meet commenced with St.

Francis gathering valuable points in the field events. The points came as a result of George Rouillard's winning the Broad jump with a leap of 19 ft. 9 $\frac{3}{4}$  in. and Don Clancy placing third in the same event. Two and a half more points were picked up by Ed Burden who tied with Jim Harrington in the Running High Jump. In the running events, Jack McCarthy was the first to score for the Red and Blue. Running an excellent race he placed second behind Larry Ellis of N.Y.U. Jack Munnolley and Ray Tally brought home medals by finishing first and third respectively in the 1000 yd. run. Tom McHugh came through with a second place in the 600. The mile relay team, running a beautiful race, captured first place honors while the two mile relay team placed a close second. The Varsity Squad compiled their only points of the night when Archie Attarian beat out
