

JAMES BLARE CUNNINGHAM

Navy

*St. Ann's Academy, Escuela de Bella Artes
Glee Club; History Club; IRC.*

Jim entered St. Francis in 1941. After being discharged from the service he returned to St. Francis. He attended an art school in Mexico, during the summer vacation. After graduation he expects to return to Escuela de Bellas Artes. Jim dislikes routine. The boys all wish him good luck in all his endeavors.

FRANK J. CURRY

Marines

St. Simon Stock High School

Math Club; Varsity Track; Class Basketball; Religion Club; Navigation Club.

One of the greatest exponents of establishing a football team at the College. Frank, or "Jack Armstrong" as the fellows kiddingly call him, eats, thinks, and sleeps football in the off moments when he is not cramming for a math test. As happened to many of the Seniors, Frank's stay at the College was interrupted by a three year hitch in the Corps. Returning to St. Francis, Frank resumed his courses as a math major and intends to enter into financial research work.

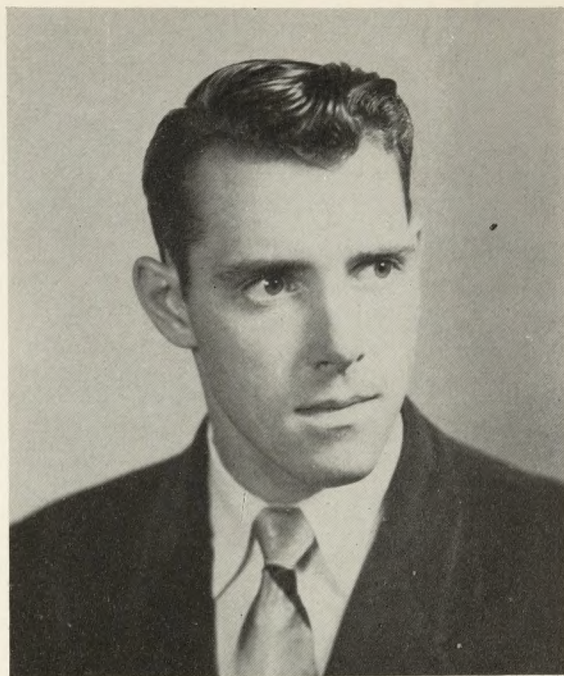

JAMES RAYMOND CUSACK, JR.

Erasmus Hall High

Math Club; German Club; Student Council; Pi Alpha; Mgr. Basketball and Basketball; Sports Editor of Voice; Franciscan.

Big Jim, the Marty Glickman of St. Francis, whom we have often heard broadcasting over station TERRIER, is the Quiz Kid of sports. To many he is known as Cue. To Jim we owe our prestige in the sports field, for many times he represented our college on sports programs, predicting many upsets in the field of sports. With all his work Jim was never lacking in humor. Whenever anyone needed Jim they could call him at his office where he would be watching the latest televised sports. Jim is looking forward to a future in sports writing and announcing. St. Francis will miss the services of one of the most unique men in college sports.

JOSEPH DOLAN

Air Corps

St. Dominic's H.S., Syracuse C.T.D.

Varsity Basketball; History Club; Who's Who; Religion Club.

Joe is well known for his 'fight' on the basketball court. His pet peeve is riding the LIRR. All of Joe's friend call him "Chuck." Joe likes games away from the home court, and frequently enjoys being a spectator at baseball and other sports. He is a history major, but isn't quite sure as to what he is going to do upon graduation. Here's a good luck cheer to a swell ballplayer and a nice fellow.

Late Flash! Joe got himself hitched this term.
