

Troupers

Depicted in the following sequence are scenes excerpted from the three productions presented by the Troupers this past year. The first production put on by the Troupers was Three-in-One, a collection of three one act plays, directed by club members. These three sketches encompassing tragedy and comedy displayed the club's talent of dramatic versatility.

Anne Cronin and Greg Gorman from Luigi Pirandello's
The License.