

SEPTEMBER 1936 in the rain . . . sixty-five Freshmen in the dark . . . got first glimpse of light in new catalogue . . . began to undergo Sophomore punishment . . . clothed in ignominious red cap and tie . . . had no football team but met remnants of varsity in the rush . . . learned that a cut is more than an incision . . . astounded by faculty's wisdom . . . Naughton meets Dzienkiewicz and with O'Neill, McConnell, Hrbek formed championship basketball team . . . Mahoney elected Class President . . . Frosh-Soph Hop in Gymnasium . . . Burns begins his columnist's career, "Strictly Frosh" . . . Brother Columba rolls his r's.

. . . LaBate rolls his '30 Ford . . . Giaconia starts taxi service to Bay Ridge . . . Sweaters and no ties . . . Mr. Delaney teaches "Good Morning" at four P.M. . . . Caricature drawn on blackboard . . . Handwriting analysis begun . . . One cut before a holiday equals one cut . . . Glynn submits apologia pro tardiness . . . Brother Jerome files apologia . . . first Year Book . . . snored through Baccalaureate . . . commencement at Academy . . . what a night!

Dolan elected President . . . acquaintance made with Science of Correct Thinking . . . new catalogue . . . Ristuccia comes to St. Franis . . . choose major and minor . . . learned about Marriage from a text book . . . marched in St. Patrick's Day parade . . . Doctor Kenny Professor of Chemistry . . . Glee Club utters first peep . . . Sheehan, Carroll, Wielert, and Mahoney crowd The Voice staff . . . college adds a wing Bingo! . . . Brennan, Ristuccia rival Barrymore . . . we are the boys of the chorus . . . Mr. Novak goes hunting and catches a cold . . . Sophs assume control of Varsity Five as Brother Richard predicts an undefeated season . . . Mr. Corlis conducts tour of museum . . . credence of evolutionary theory seen . . . Brother Edmund goes to Washington . . . Wielert threatens to join the Navy . . . ho-hum . . . another commencement.

Wielert's threat frustrated . . . new catalogue. . . Lynch becomes Flight Squadron "A" . . . Burns first Junior to become Editor of The Voice . . . Varsity defeats City for first time . . . Brother Richard predicts undefeated season . . . students blast West Wall . . . Miss O'Brien skis in from Kew Gardens . . . office staff separated from Dean's . . . inter-office communication system effects rescue . . . Junior Prom: Lynch, Chairman; Eschmann, orchestra; Park Lane, scene . . . Mr. Delaney leads Promenade with borrowed escort . . . Mahoney Class President . . . Father Pfeifer recipient of red cap . . . no tips . . . on exams . . . Bohan changes name . . . becomes Franciscan Brother . . . 80th Anniversary of College . . . special issue of The Voice . . . Alumni Ball . . . contingent follows team to Villanova . . . loses ball game and transmission . . . snake dance through Ethics . . . Dean hisses . . . Ristuccia kisses stairs . . . no encore . . . The Voice holds dance for baseball team . . . no baseball team . . . Father Duffee conducts Retreat . . . hears confessions . . . prognosticates European War . . . Oratorical contest . . . Mr. D— looks for contestants . . . new Bulletin Board announces arrivals and departures . . . Professor Pfeifer will not meet his classes any more . . . twenty-five years of loyal service . . . honored by Alumni Association . . . nemo will dat no more . . . Father Conerty conducts Ethics class at Ebbets Field . . . no bases stolen . . . Barry raises his cultural status . . . quits job as movie usher to accept position at Academy of Music . . . long-haired stuff . . . Burnett becomes assistant Librarian . . . Mrs. Sedgwick fears for position . . . thespians report progress . . . Dean declares "Holiday" for College Show . . . Academy of Music locale . . . Mahoney Editor of 1940 Franciscan . . . Brother Leo . . . more gray hairs . . . Father Conerty analyzes being . . . ain't what it used to be . . . class wins baseball championship of school . . . defeats Sophomores in only game . . . protests unheeded . . . volumes increase in library . . . library increases in size . . . King arrives on horseback . . . Sheehan new Voice Editor . . . second science man to become such . . . hooooo-hum, another commencement . . . end of a decade.

Begin sorrowful mysteries with Ethics . . . two new catalogues . . . coats and ties . . . Wielert President of Duns Scotus . . . Mahoney President of Class . . . Lennon head of Student Council . . . Miss Richardson alias Mrs. Farwell new custodian of the defeated season . . . students blast West Wall . . . Miss O'Brien skis in from Kew Gardens . . . office staff separated from Dean's . . . inter-office communication system effects rescue . . . Junior Prom: Lynch, Chairman; Eschmann, orchestra; Park Lane, scene . . . Mr. Delaney leads Promenade with borrowed escort . . . Mahoney Class President . . . Father Pfeifer recipient of red cap . . . no tips . . . on exams . . . Bohan changes name . . . becomes Franciscan Brother . . . 80th Anniversary of College . . . special issue of The Voice . . . Alumni Ball . . . contingent follows team

