

The start of a pleasant evening.

What would MOTHER say???

OMEGA DELTA CHI

Entering into its fifth year of existence, Omega Delta Chi swiftly joined the ranks of notable organizations at the College.

Guided by a new moderator in the person of Mr. Thomas J. Courtney, and Chancellor Joseph Gainsa, the brothers of Omega embarked upon another phase of growth.

Following a series of successful fraternity socials, the forecast for Omega looked good. True to form, Omega soon acquired a new fraternity house in downtown Brooklyn, as well as conducting a successful pledge week in the Fall of 1964. In service to the College, Omega excelled. After a lucrative series of raffles were sponsored, the proceeds were generously donated to the audio-visual aids fund of the McGarry Library.

Successful both in an economic and social sphere, the brothers of Omega saw, in this past year, the accomplishment of what was once "hoped for," but now achieved. The fraternity had reached the apex of operation.

Front Row: E. Portman, J. Maguire, I. R. Coccaro, K. Holland. Second Row: M. Luongo, J. Magee, J. Belcastro, H. Hogan, M. Luciano, R. DuBois, Mr. Thomas Courtney, T. McShane, J. Kandybowicz, W. O'Connel, J. Kane, J. Gainsa. Back Row: J. Maguire, II, J. Bennet, W. Jandovitz, T. Makillop, J. Murphy, J. Tully, D. Hughes.