

Moot Court

Do you have any closing arguments?

This year's Moot Court proved to be the most exciting one yet. The case this time was State v. Brown which was a rape case. The defense won due to its sparkling argumentative ability. It was a tense and emotional trial. The high point of the trial was when the prosecutor wanted to impeach a witness for perjury. Of course this was not allowed. Congratulations to all who participated in this show of due process. All involved showed true legal abilities, especially Rusty the bailiff, who for the second year in a row kept the courtroom orderly and in check. Thanks again Rusty!!
