TERRIERS

"O.K. We'll flip a coin."

Hitting, pitching, experience, and a coach who knows his baseball are the ingredients which the Terriers are mixing together to serve up their first Knickerbocker Conference Title.

In a thrilling finale to last season, S.F.C. beat L.I.U., the perennial Conference Champs, 4 to 1 behind the pitching of Bill Ryan. The Terriers finished the season in second place with a 6-2 record. Deciding that they would rather switch than fight the Terriers again, the Blackbirds of L.I.U. flew off to the Met Conference.

This year's team hopes center on the first line pitching of Billy Ryan, Paul De Loca, Peter Roach, and Ed Cremin. Power is supplied by a trio of sluggers in Tony Alvarez, Jack Crispi, and Louis Mannarino. Added to this is the heads-up playing of Dom Quartuccio, John Lessard, Greg Dunn, Bob Corsanno, and Ed O'Conner.

As the defending title-holder, the Terriers played host to this Fall's M.E.C.A.A. tournament.
