PHI RHO PI

UNDER the leadership of Phi Rho Pi Praetor James Heinhold, this Fraternity had a successful year. The annual Phi Rho Pi Ball, attended by literally hundreds of Phi Rho Pi members, alumni, and friends, was a social as well as a financial success. The Phi Rho Pi pledging period saw ten new members inducted into Phi Rho Pi. Praetor Heinhold chaired the Student Council Blood Drive Committee, but nevertheless, only 75 pints were added to the College Blood Bank. Phi Rho Pi brother Tom Raftery was elected Editor of The Voice at the resignation of Phi Rho Pi member Ed Fox. Phi Rho Pi members were instrumental in preventing the planned reorganization of the Student Council. In his campaign for the Presidency of the Student Council, Phi Rho Pi-man Bob Long warned against the activities of "petty politicians."

All in all, Phi Rho Pi had a typically successful Phi Rho Pi year.
