

En route to the Phi Rho Frat house where the Terriers planned to imprison him; the chief attempted to escape, but his efforts were in vain.

While negotiations were being completed, the Six Terriers treated the Chief handsomely. But, a band of ungrateful ruffians from St. John's kidnapped Tony Braginetz and held him as a hostage. Friday morning the Redmen stormed the Butler St. Gym. An hour later they left smiling — with their Chief and a memorial plaque. That afternoon Tony was released as the Redmen celebrated their Chief's return.

TRACK

RARELY has a sport progressed as rapidly at any College as has Track at St. Francis. Established at the College as a Major sport only five years ago, St. Francis has already been accepted in the Metropolitan Collegiate Association and has formally applied for admission into the I. C. 4A.

Auspicious was the Terriers' debut in Class A competition. In the Annual Metropolitan Collegiate Cross Country Championships, the Hill and Dale Squad—inaugurated only a year ago—upset the pre-race favorites and finished a surprising third. Led by Captain Bill McGuire who was runner-up to Les MacMitchell, the St. Francis Harriers placed behind N. Y. U. and Manhattan and in front of Fordham, City College, Columbia and St. John's. Joe Kazlowski, Joe Coords, Jack Troy and Sal Graziadei rounded out the X-Country Squad.

For the Indoor Campaign, the accent was on relay events—only two or three men vieing for individual honors. . . . The Mile Relay of Curry, Graziadei, Motowidlowski and Downs scored two fourths and a fifth
