Dear Sharon and Wendy,

There are not many friends in the world like the two of you. We've put up with each other through grammar school (Sharon), junior high school (Wendy), high school, and now college. We've been there for each other through the good times, the bad times and when anyone of us has had a problem. That is what makes our friendship so strong and special, and nobody could ever take that away from us. We've shared so much and have had so many wonderful memories and I hope that we will continue to be friends forever.

Love,
Diana

To my dad,

John Flannigan,

Experience the sensation of champagne and caviar on the promenade, noon or midnight, just you and I, because life is just a cocktail party on the street.

Richie,

Thanks. You've made my first year here meaningful. The best times I had, I had with you. Lots of luck.

Love always,
Michele

Laura,

Live life a little without getting out of hand. Life is not so serious as you think. Don't be depressed or unhappy, each day is a new day. Take it from one who knows. Sorority sisters forever, no matter what you say, think or might be told . . .

Love,
Christine

To my Ginzo,

Don't forget it . . . Gin for Guinea Italian, zo for Gonzo, the muppet with that nose.

Love,
Christine

Dad,

Thanks for the house (rent free), the bills (you'e paying 'em) and the support. I would've never made it through college.

Love,
Christina

P.S. I have to mention them — Bullet and Rocky, the best dogs I've ever had even if they don't get along. By the way, you're a great-grandfather; my fish had babies!!

Steph and Deb,

The pains in my life: growing up would've been a lot different without our fighting . . . Steph, remember "it's your boyfriend on the phone . . .," Deb, "remember your double dutch bus stage . . ." CLEAN OUT YOUR ROOM BEFORE THE NEXT CENTURY!!!

Love,
Christine

Gia and Laura K.,

Stop cutting classes, Laura told me to say this. Otherwise, you'll never get out . . . Oh No!!

Love,
Christine

Hey Andy and Chris K.,

Hey Joe Espo,

"The Devil went down to Georgia he was looking for a beer to drink . . . he came upon a fat kid sitting on the hood of this T-bird . . . he said boy let me tell you what. I guess you didn't know it but I'm a beer drinker too, and if you care to make a dare, I'll place a bet with you. Now you drink pretty good beer boy, but give the devil his due, I got a porscha of gold, to get your soul, I'll drink more than you. The boys said my name is Andy and it might be a sin, but I'll take your bet you're gonna regret because I'm the drunkest I've ever been . . ." Your pals,

Erin,

Yes you get mentioned even if you are not in the school, fraternity, or sororities or even on publications. We love you anyway and thanks for all of your help.

Welcome to the Jungle, Don't give up, just give in. I promise never to wear heels around you again. Don't worry, it could be worse, how worse I don't know, but I'll think of something someday. Keep practicing that basketball game, because I will beat you at it!!!

Luv Ya,
Liz
